

einride

Sean Ackley

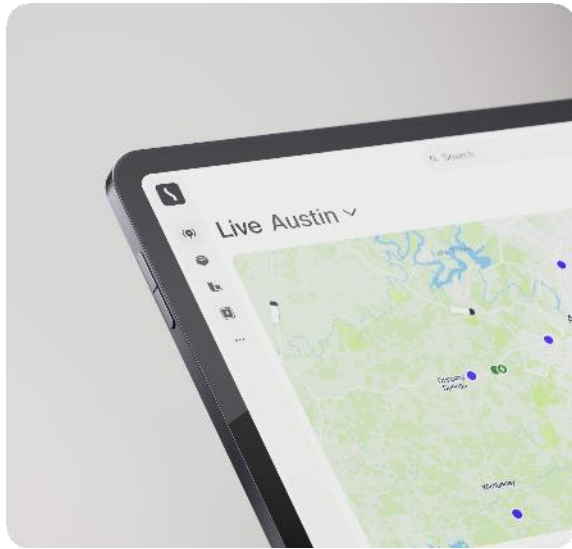

VP Energy & Charging Infra - NAM

Einride provides shippers with an efficient, sustainable and reliable transport service - enabled by our integrated technology platform

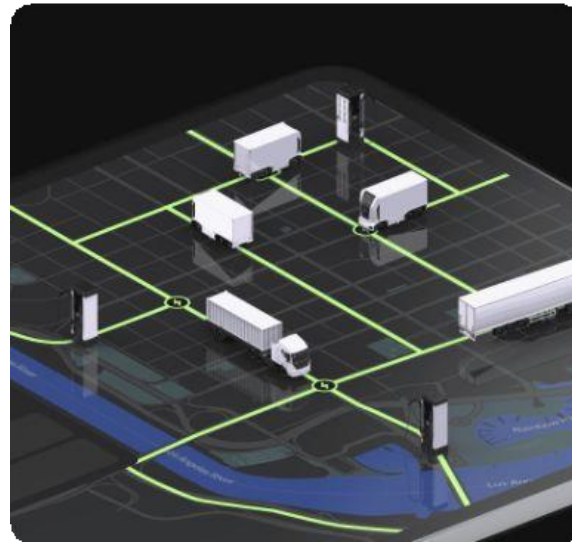

Einride is the transformation partner for the future of road freight – offering a turnkey solution for electric transports at a competitive rate

Einride customer offer

Assessment

Planning

Deployment

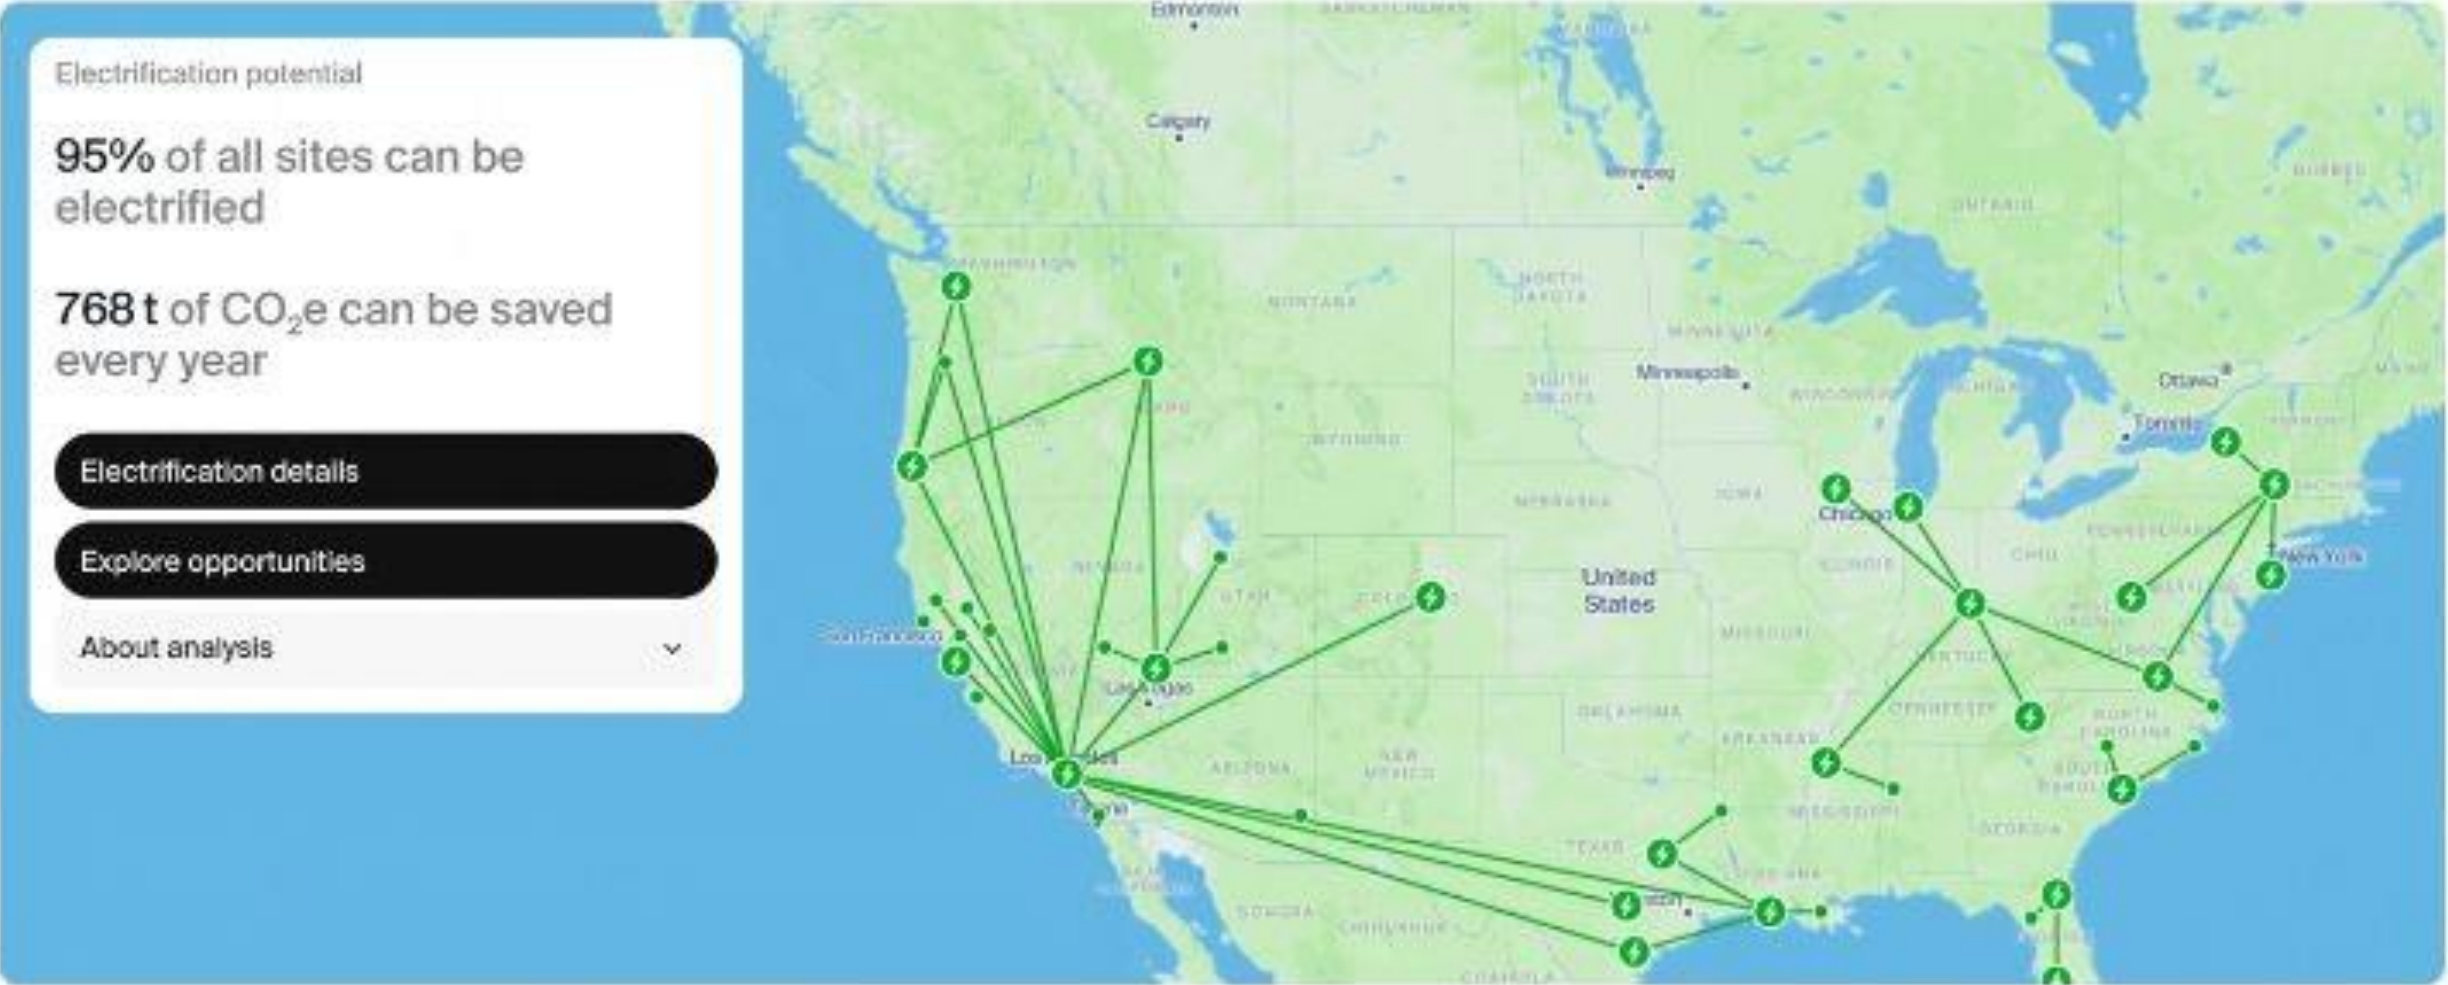

Operations

Einride business model

Freight Capacity as a Service: Multi-year operational contracts and Joint Business Plans for transition of heavy-duty transport to electric and electric autonomous

Powered by data & driven by AI: Einride engages customers and captures demand with cutting edge analytics systems to provide actionable plans

Excerpt from Einride customer data on US transportation network

The Einride Charging Network

Einride charging modes

Private installs

Einride Smartcharger Stations

3rd party charging network

Einride is live with the largest heavy-duty charging hub in North America, the Einride Smartcharger Station Lynwood - serving operations near the Port of Long Beach in LA

65

Charging points

7.2

MW capacity

200

Supported CETs

132,000

Tons of annual CO2 saved

